

Forward March

THE BAY AREA SPRINGS FORWARD WITH COUNTLESS DIVERSIONS TO LOVE THIS MONTH. BY ERIN KAIN

DECORATE

Rug dynamo Erik Lindström debuts luxe new floor coverings at SF's high-end interiors studio Natalie Mize. Each piece is crafted by artisan weavers with only the finest of materials (think Tibetan and New Zealand wool, fine silk, bamboo and linen) and can be customized to virtually any preference. Look for contemporary, textural pieces designed to stand out in the crowd. 2 Henry Adams St., Ste. 2M-69, 915.872.4377, nataliemize.com; eriklindstrom.com

DISCOVER

Explore Oakland's diverse culinary scene during Oakland Restaurant Week. From March 16 to 26, take advantage of lunch and dinner seatings at six different price points with special offers, custom menus and unique dishes created exclusively for the event. From Michelin-starred eateries and neighborhood favorites to food trucks and more, the city's rich epicurean offerings are on full display. ## SIP

The Bay Area may be known for wine, but Loco is making sure it's known for its tequila too. The brand produces three signature sips—Loco Puro Corazón, Loco Ambar and Loco Blanco—all crafted with Weber blue varietal from Mexico's El Arenal. Says maestro tequilero Alberto Navarro, "The essence of Loco represents the essence of agaves, not oak or any other added flavors." loco-tequila.com
