LOCO AMBAR TEQUILA

Loco's latest release, Loco Ambar Reposado, proves why this brand has become a favorite among tequila enthusiasts. Crafted in El Arenal, Jalisco from 100 percent Blue Weber agave, it is aged six to eight months in a thoughtful blend of barrels including Irish whiskey, stout, beer, rye, port, Pedro Ximénez sherry, and French oak. The result is a tequila that balances richness and brightness while letting the agave's character shine. (store.loco-tequila.com)

On the nose, Ambar offers cooked agave, honeyed citrus, warm spices, and subtle floral notes. The palate is silky and layered with roasted agave, caramel, and dried fruit, finishing long and refined. Unlike many reposados that lean heavily on oak, this one keeps the agave front and center while the barrel selection adds depth and complexity. Each bottle is numbered and presented in a sculptural, weighty design, reflecting the care that goes into the liquid inside.
